Family Connection

This six-week course is for parents of children over ten – who are encouraged to come along too.

Inclusion is the key as discussions are held on cooperation, relating respectfully and solving problems. This course is based on the work of George Doub and Florence Creighton, authors of Survival Skills for Healthy Families.

Participants learn

- three basic skills: speak, listen and cooperate
- six steps to resolving conflict
- six steps to solving problems
- three patterns that healthy families use.

Each family will learn

- three ways to encourage one another
- how to build on the strengths in their family
- six rules for successful family meetings
- society's rules on abuse and neglect.
